

Protect your family's farming legacy.

IS YOUR FARM:

- implementing filter strips and grass waterways to reduce soil loss?
- utilizing nutrient management to reduce excess application?
- minimizing tillage to build soil health?
- incorporating cover crops to build organic matter?

If you are not farming your ground, have a conversation with your farm operator.

Soil health practices add economic value to both the landowner and farmer.

Have questions, looking for technical or financial resources?

Contact Benton County Soil and Water Conservation District

Leslie Fisher: 765-884-0660

